A series of free works, which were created as part of my portfolio for communication design studies.

The overall topic was any association with depression, some with disarming humor and mostly very minimalistic and clear.

Most of the copies are black and white printed, a few are also colored.

The shipping tube is simply white with a black 'Design by Vincent Riese' print on it.

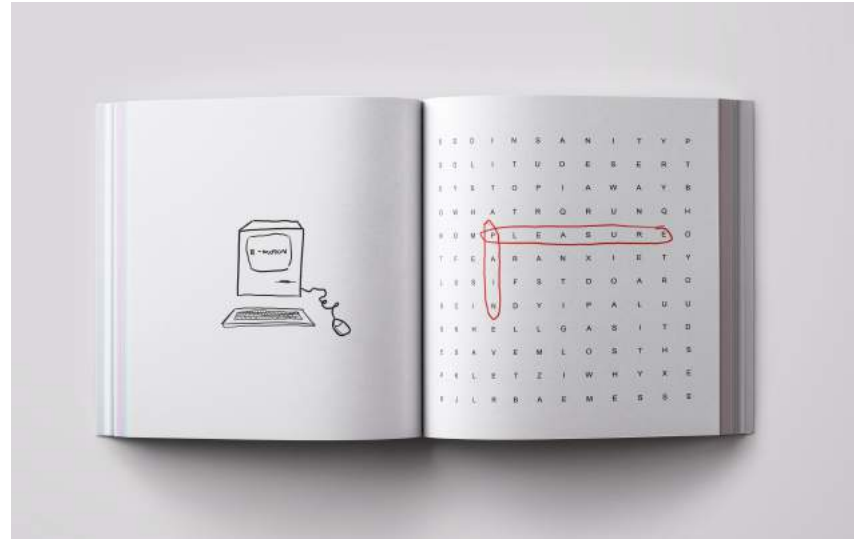

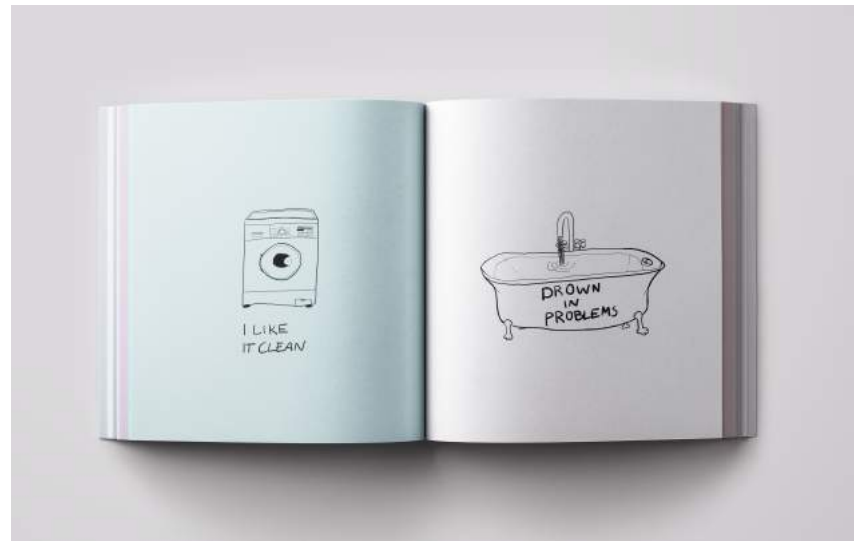

White cotton t-shirt with black ,IT'S YOURS' heart motive, digital printed.

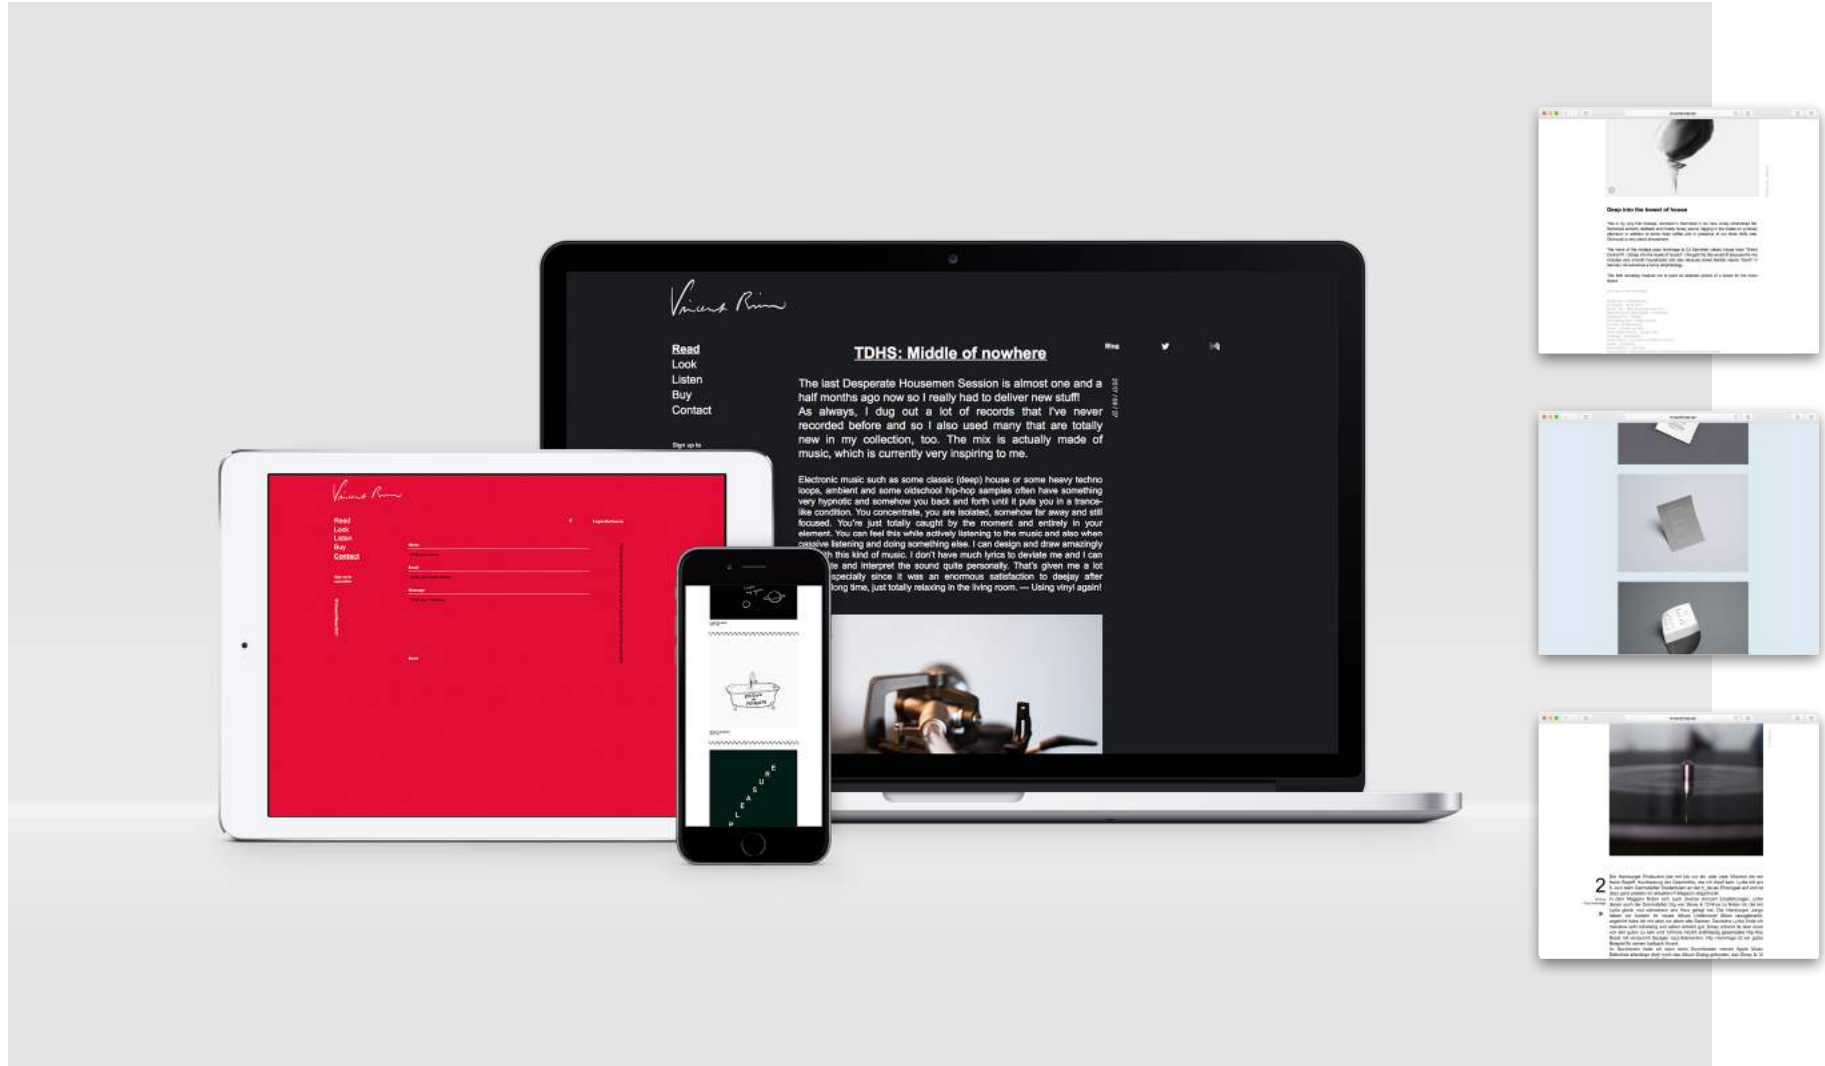

White apparel shipping bag sealed up with white-on-black ,RARE PLEASURE by Vincent Riese' sticker.

These illustrations were also created as part of the application for my design studies.

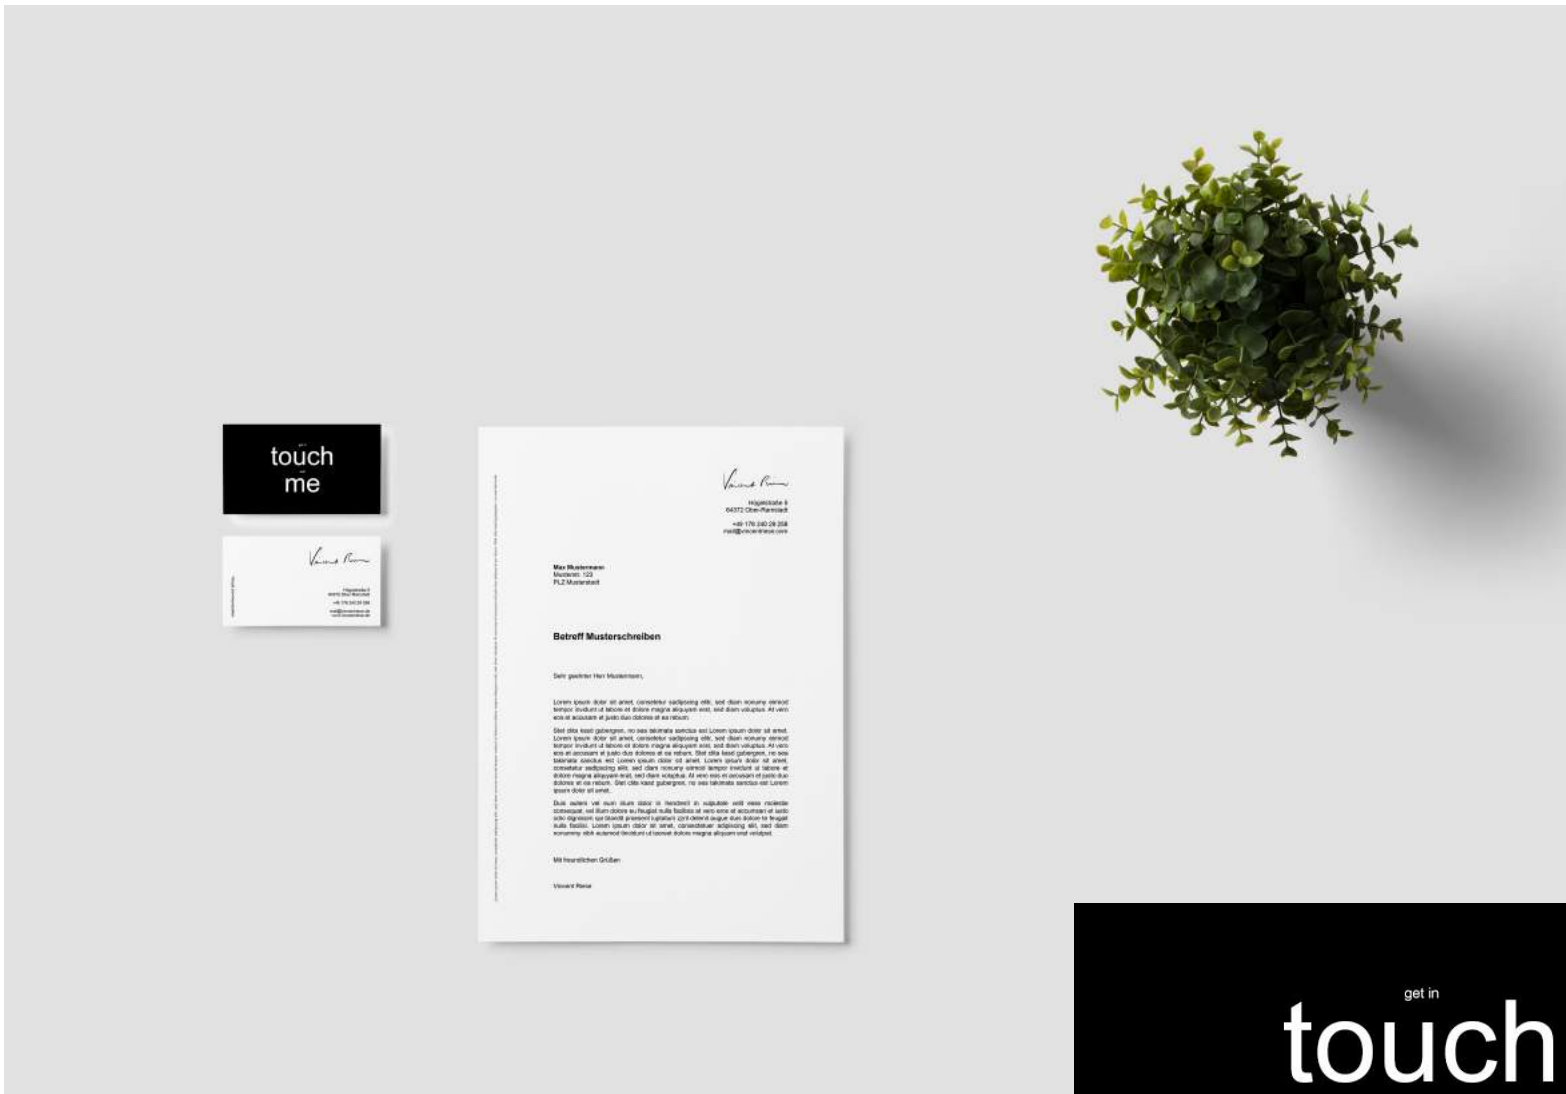

Digital layout of my own HTML5 based website in a minimalist style, focused on the essential: the content.

Oil paint of a stomach as cover for a debut mixtape which was recorded in Darmstadt.

Concept for ,The Desperate Housemen Sessions' magazine, entire layout, authoring, cover and creation of photo material.

Draft of corporate documents, A4 cover letter as well as front and back of business card.
